Prix Cécile DeWitt-Morette / Ecole de Physique des Houches Académie des sciences [Established in 2019]

2020 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

In 2020, the French Académie des sciences will award the « Cécile DeWitt-Morette / Ecole de Physique des Houches » prize of 15,000 euros.

The « Cécile DeWitt-Morette/Ecole de Physique des Houches » prize of the French Académie des sciences is created in 2019 to honor the memory of Mrs Cécile DeWitt-Morette, the founder of the Physics School located in the les Houches village in the French Alps.

The School partners represented by CNRS, CEA, Grenoble-Alpes University, Grenoble INP and the ENS Lyon have created this annual international prize of 15 000€.

The prize will be attributed to a laureate less than 55 years old in 2020 from any nationality, who has made a remarkable contribution to physics. The prize will cover all components of physics from fundamental aspects to applications. The laureate must have participated to one of the Les Houches schools or workshops as a lecturer, student or organizer. The prize jury is composed of members of the French Academy of Sciences, who are sovereign in the choice of the laureate.
